R. L. HUBBLE.

Of Lincoln county, is a candidate for the nomination for State Senator in this district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

ALTHOUGH a Congressman 60 years ago and 40 years ago a member of Jeff Davis' cabinet and now the only survivor, the venerable John H. Reagan, of Texas, is a delegate from the State-at-large to the St. Louis convention, instructed for Parker. The wonderful preservation of the Confederate postmaster general seems to indicate that he has indeed found the fabled fountain of perpetual youth.

THE unseating of the Helm delegates from Garrard and giving the county to Col. Moore was a high-handed piece of business and a travesty on justice. The men who did it will regret it when they see the injury they have done the democratic party. Interest in party welfare was certainly not considered when the deal was made.

CORTELYOU says he is going to be chairman of the republican national committee in fact as well as name. This is evidently a joke. Everybody knows that like a jumping jack he will only move when Roosevelt pulls the string.

POLITICAL.

Republican managers now admit that the Wisconsin split makes probable the defeat of their electoral ticket in that State in November.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Hon. R. B. Bradley, of Madisonville, as judge of the Hopkins county court, to succeed Judge C. C. Gliven, resigned.

It is now said that even the congratulatory telegrams to Roosevelt were like all the other proceedings of the National convention, prepared in advance.

John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, minority leader in Congress, has been selected as the temporary chairman of the coming Democratic National Convention. The permanent chairman will probably come from a Northern State.

The democrats of Missouri, in convention at Joplin, endorsed Senator F. M. Cockrell for the presidential nomination. Senator Stone, Gov. Dockery, Congressman Clark and Congressman DeArmond were elected delegates-at-large to the national convention.

Congressman James N. Kehoe has been declared the democratic nominee in the ninth district, no other candidate appearing by a given time. Mr. Kehoe is a strong man in his district. It is only when he branches out after State offices that he catches it in the neck.

100 BALLOTS AND NO NOMINATION.

Looks Like a Dead Lock at Shelbyville.

The convention has taken 100 ballots with the same result each time—Helm 29, Gilbert 35 and Moore 24. While it looks like a dead lock, the Lincoln contingent at Shelbyville is in good spirits and thinks that Mr. Helm will be nominated beyond doubt.

The delegates to the Eighth District Congressional Convention assembled in Layson Hall at Shelbyville at 1 o'clock Tuesday. A brass band furnished plenty of stirring music. Executive Committee Fitch called the convention to order shortly after 1 o'clock. Shelby county placed John Holland in nomination for temporary secretary. Mercer presented the name of John G. Pulliam, and Lincoln presented E. C. Walton's name. J. A. Sullivan, of Madison, moved that all three gentlemen act as secretaries, and the motion was unanimously carried. On the call of counties for nominations for temporary chairman, Shelby county placed in nomination E. B. Hoover, of Jessamine. Mercer county presented the name of Judge B. F. Roach, of Mercer. Lincoln county was passed. When Madison was called, Judge Jerry Sullivan, of Madison, seconded the nomination of Judge Roach. As quick as a flash Shelby county withdrew Mr. Hoover's name and Judge Roach was elected temporary chairman. The result was a victory for a combination made by Moore and Helm. Judge Roach took the platform and rapped for order. He said he proposed to give the delegates the "best run for their money he could."

The usual method of allowing each county to name a member of the three committees was not observed, but upon motion, unanimously adopted, Chairman Roach was authorized to appoint three committees for resolutions, credentials and organization. He named them as follows, each candidate being represented on each committee by a man.

Credentials—W. Vernon Richardson, of Boyle; Thomas Smith, of Madison; Thomas Byars, of Shelby.

Organization—Jere Sullivan, of Madison; D. Lee Curry, of Mercer; Edward Montjoy, of Anderson.

Resolutions—E. B. Hoover, of Jessamine; R. W. Miller, of Madison; C. R. McDowell, of Boyle.

After the appointment of the committees, a recess until 2:30 o'clock was taken and Lieut. Gov. Thorne, Judge Frank Peake, Willard Mitchell and others, entertained the delegates with speeches. When the convention met at 2:30 an adjournment was made until 4 o'clock. At that hour it was reported that the committee on credentials was still not ready to report and an adjournment was made until 7:30. The committee had not yet completed its labors and the convention again adjourned until 10:30 Wednesday. At 10:45 Wednesday morning the convention was called to order, and it was announced that the credentials committee would report. Mr. Richardson read his report, recommending the seating of the Moore delegates. The report was signed by Richardson and Byers, showing that Gilbert and Moore had combined to make the majority report. Mr. Smith, of Madison, for Helm, offered a minority report. After much "speechifying" the vote on the minority report was taken. Jessamine turned on the Shelby county man and voted for the minority report. The report was voted down by a vote of 44 to 37. The motion to adopt the majority report was then made. The counties were called and the report was adopted by a vote of 44 to 37, seating the Moore men and cutting down Helm's vote from 36 to 29 and increasing Moore's vote from 17 to 24. An adjournment was then voted.

At 2:45 o'clock the convention reconvened and the call of the counties was ordered for nominations for Congress. This was the signal for the opening of a flood of oratory. W. J. Price placed Col. Moore in nomination; R. W. Miller placed the name of Harvey Helm before the convention and was given a splendid reception. When Shelby county was called, C. G. Barrickman arose and made a speech nominating Mr. Gilbert. J. W. Watts, of Jessamine, seconded Gilbert's nomination and Geo. B. Sauley, of Lincoln, seconded the nomination of Helm. Judge John Hughes, of Mercer, seconded Moore's nomination.

The only contest was that sent from Garrard county and while it looked like a joke on the start it grew distressingly serious before the convention got under headway. How the good people of our neighbor county are going to stand such high-handed business as the seating of Moore delegates from that county remains to be seen.

Homesteaders held up a freight train fifty miles from Valentine, Neb., and demanded passage to that city, in order to file their claims.

H. J. Middleton, Associated Press correspondent with the Russian headquarters near Liao Yang, died from enteric dysentery.

John Alexander Dowie is reported to have purchased land near Highland Falls, N. Y., for a new Zion City.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Will Wagner was killed by lightning near Columbia.

Mrs. Laura Virginia Schofield is dead at Burgin after a long illness.

John W. Burton has been appointed postmaster at Purdy, Adair county.

Thomas Masew, a farmer, aged 80, dropped dead on the street in Nicholasville.

Attorney R. B. Waddell, of Somerset, has been made claim agent for the Queen & Crescent road.

Y. W. McGray, a well-known farmer, of Mercer, was tried for lunacy and ordered sent to the asylum.

L. E. Bixler, a dry goods merchant, of Harrodsburg, filed a deed of assignment. Bush W. Allen, of the Mercer National Bank, is named as assignee.

Judge W. S. Stone, of Monticello, has been nominated by the prohibitionists of his district for Congress. He has accepted and will make a canvass.

James Cox, a well-known farmer living near Lancaster, accidentally shot himself while cleaning a revolver, the ball entering his hip making a painful wound.

Near Pittsburg, Laurel county, Henry Conking was shot and killed by John Davis. Davis claims the killing was accidental. He gave himself up to the officers.

Dan Collier Elkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elkin, of Lancaster, narrowly escaped death by drinking through a mistake from a bottle containing a solution of corrosive sublimate. The heroic work of two physicians only succeeded in restoring him.

The residence of Burrell Smith at Corbin, was dynamited. Considerable damage was done to the building but no one was hurt. Smith had been marshall there until this week and had incurred the ill will of many, having killed a man a few weeks ago.

The latest fad in Danville is the fortune telling fad. The young folks are going by the score to Mrs. Highlanders' at Junction City, where for 25c you may have revealed to you what you are, what you have done and things you never expect to do.—Advocate.

There are at present sojourning in the suburbs of Columbia two remarkable old colored persons—Robert Williams, aged 93 and his wife, Cathrine, who is in her 92d year. They are from Greensburg and were married 75 years ago. During their married life 15 children were born unto them.—Adair News.

At a meeting of the city council Saturday morning Ordinance No. 150, which provided that a license of $100 should be imposed upon wholesale liquor dealers, was so amended as to make the license $1,000. The ordinance was immediately published and posted, and went into effect Saturday. This was doubtless done to forestall the establishment of the branch office of the brewery that has applied for license to conduct a business here. The indications, however, at present are that the company will come here notwithstanding this action of the council, says the Danville Advocate.

Season of 1904.

Crab Orchard Springs.

Kentucky's Most Delightful Summer Resort.

Four Hotels. Capacity 600 Guests.

Famous Crab Orchard Springs.

As the heated term approaches, the thought arises, where shall I go to seek rest and quiet and find pleasant days and cool nights? This can be easily answered. Crab Orchard Springs for nearly a century has been a model Summer resort, and this season promises to be the best in its history. There health and happiness can always be found. The days are never oppressively warm, while the nights are delightfully pleasant from June till October. The famous Crab Orchard water, (from which is made Crab Orchard Salts), Sulphur, Chalybeate, Magnesia, etc., all flow from large springs close to the Springs Hotel. A new Epsom Well has been opened and the use of the Salt Sulphur Well at depot has been secured.

The Table.

Neither money nor pains will be spared to make the table the best to be found in Kentucky. Fine cattle, mutton, pork and poultry, fattened on the Springs farm, not surpassed anywhere.

Improvements.

The Springs buildings have all been improved, while paint and paper have been liberally used. The grounds are in the very pink of condition and present a scene lovely to behold just now. All of the walks have been regravelled. Also a complete job of plumbing just about completed from top to bottom.

Society and Amusements.

Crab Orchard Springs has long been noted for the home-like feeling that pervades the entire place. The ceremonial edicts of fashionable home life are laid aside, while each individual promotes his or her own happiness in contributing to the happiness of others.

Rates.

The rates are very low, considering the excellence of the service. For $8 to $10 per week delightful rooms and splendid fare can be obtained.
